

The Dye's Deputation Journey

March-May 2024

It is always enjoyable to see fellow missionaries on the road or in mission's conferences. In the past couple of months, we have been able to see some missionaries a couple of times along with random run-ins at gas stations with people we met at different churches. Being a missionary, as well as a christian makes the world seem small with the many connections that we make. It is one of the many joys we find while traveling.

In March, we traveled a good bit away from the east coast. We started in North Carolina, went through Missouri and ended our trail of meetings in the southern part of Texas. Those meetings were such a blessing, and we even got two new supporting churches from that trip. We enjoyed our time with the church in Missouri. During their conference, they took us all out to Elephant Rocks State Park. It was such a beautiful day and a sweet time of fellowship. Then the church in Midland, Texas had gift baskets for our family when we got to the hotel. It was so thoughtful of them, and we are so grateful to have met such wonderful people.

In our meeting in Arkansas, we met several pastors during a preacher fellowship, as well as got to see and meet some BIMI Missionaries. We also went out soul winning with the church and 5 people accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior. It was amazing to witness that!

While meeting people is wonderful, our goal is still to gain support. We are right below 80%, with the hope of being in Uganda by the end of the summer. We know God can do it, and we are so grateful for all of your prayers.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- ❖ Our van is in the shop right now. We're hoping to get the A/C fixed.
- ❖ We have meetings in Alabama; we're hoping to get new supporting churches this month.
